

VIRGINIA CREDIT UNION LIVE! RULES

The following is a list of rules that must be adhered to for any event that is taking place in the Virginia Credit Union LIVE! at Richmond Raceway.

1. Parking attendants are required to be used and paid for by the promoter. Richmond Raceway will make proper arrangements for parking attendants.
2. Ushers and security must be used and paid for by the promoter.
3. No stickers are allowed to be given out or sold by the promoter, radio stations involved or through band merchandise.
4. Parking for the public will be opened 1 hour before the doors open. Doors at least 1 hour before all events, please check the specific event details for parking and door opening times.
5. No tailgating is permitted in the parking area pre or post events.
6. In advertising, the location is to be called Virginia Credit Union LIVE! at Richmond Raceway.
7. A Festival Permit must be obtained from Henrico County. Henrico County will communicate directly with promoter for all Henrico County personnel requirements. Promoter is responsible for adhering to all requirements by Henrico County.
8. Henrico County and Richmond Raceway have the final decision on all entertainment allowed to perform.
9. All sound and noise restrictions must be adhered to.
10. No re-entry once admitted into Virginia Credit Union LIVE! at Richmond Raceway.
11. As of 2017, AEG/The Bowery Presents is the exclusive booking agent of Virginia Credit Union LIVE! at Richmond Raceway.

If any of these rules are not adhered to without written permission from Richmond Raceway, the promoter is subject to cancellation of the event or a fine of no less than $2,500.